

Seeking Solitude in Algonquin Park

Why go deeper into the woods to be less comfortable, less scheduled, and less engaged in the circuitry of work and family life? We invite you to find your own reasons why less-is-more on this 7 day search for solitude in Algonquin Park. You may speak of the clouds uncovering the moon, the perspective you gained in the hush of gentle rain, or the cleverness that gave way to earthly wisdom. Seeking Solitude is a canoe trip in Algonquin park that invites you to your essential self through an experience of simple abundance.

And when they ask why did you go, you may find yourself saying less...and being more.

What's Included: Meals are provided from dinner on Day One to Lunch on departure day. All Algonquin Park camping gear, equipment, canoes and safety gear are provided, and your canoe trip will be led by a qualified adventure retreat facilitator.

Who This Trip is For: You enjoy physical activity. You want to go further into the Algonquin Park interior to discover nature less trodden. You enjoy your own company but you appreciate traveling in a group.

What to Bring: There is no need to purchase special equipment to enjoy this Algonquin Park canoe trip. Everything necessary is supplied and we provide a short packing list with registration to ensure your personal comfort.

Easy to Get to: Our Solar-powered nature retreat is nestled on the Edge of Algonquin Park. Served by bus, train and airport shuttle, we are happy to offer travel advice and driving directions.

Next Steps: We invite you to call us toll free at 1-800-953-3343 in North America or 705-386-1595 local or international (country code 001). You can also check availability online using our convenient webform at www.NorthernEdgeAlgonquin.com/planner.html.
