

The Tom Thomson Experience: An Ontario Art Retreat

For renowned artist Tom Thomson, the canoe was as important as the paintbrush for discovering the evocative landscape that inspired him. Join us at the Edge of Algonquin Park to retrace the steps of one of Canada's famous Group of Seven in the Northwest corner of Algonquin Park, Ontario on this Art Retreat.

Through a guided process of experimentation with watercolour paint, pencils, and chalk, participants are encouraged to unleash their creative spirit. In addition to four days lodging and delicious slow cooked meals, this retreat includes all necessary material, art facilitators and time to canoe and paint "en plein air". A special guest and entertaining mystery dinner round out this Ontario Art Retreat.

While you're with us you'll enjoy...

Our cabin accommodations provide clean, simple, comforts, and abundant perspectives. Our mission lives not in the events we host but in our commitment to sustainability: serving up organic, local, and fair trade foods.

"At times, I imagined Tom looking at some of the same vistas we saw and it inspired my painting."
